We think the following very good:

For the Gazette.

Lines to Her who'll understand them.

I know a lady very fair—
Take care! take care!
At making love an adept rare—
Beware! beware!

She'll play, and sing, and dance—
Take care! take care!
And steal your heart without a chance—
Beware! beware!

Sly cupid lurks amidst her curls—
Take care! take care!
Most winsome she of all the girls—
Beware! beware!

She'll talk, and laugh, and blarney you—
Take care! take care!
A thing, perhaps, that you may rue—
Beware! beware!

Her nectared lips twin cherries are—
Take care! take care!
Her eyes are radiant as a star—
Beware! beware!

Her form is lithe as elfin sprite—
Take care! take care!
Her step as buoyant, soft, and light—
Beware! beware!

A happy mortal who'd caress her—
Take care! take care!
A being divine—O! may God bless her—
Beware! beware!

W. J. M.

GEN. GRANT'S TESTIMONY BEFORE THE IMPEACHMENT COMMITTEE.

I have seen the President very frequently in reference to the condition of affairs in the rebel States. When I was asked to be at a cabinet meeting, it was because some question was up in which, as general of the army, I was interested. I am not aware of any interview with the President on amnesty. I have occasionally recommended a person for amnesty. I thought myself at the time that there was no reason why because a person had risen to the rank of a General he should be excluded from amnesty any more than one who had failed to reach that rank. I spoke on that point. I did not see much reason for the $20,000 clause. These are the only two points that I remember to have spoken of at the time. I afterward, however, told him that I thought he was much nearer right on the $20,000 clause than I was. I was present when the proclamation was read in Cabinet, but my views were not asked. I never gave any opinion to the President that it would be better at the time to issue a proclamation of general amnesty.

I frequently had to intercede for General Lee and other paroled officers, on the ground that their parole, so long as they obeyed the laws of the United States, protected them from arrest and trial. The President at that time occupied exactly the same grounds, viz: That they should be tried and punished. He wanted to know when the time would come that they should be punished. I told him not so long as they obeyed the laws and complied with the stipulation. That was the ground I took. It applied to every one who took the parole, but that matter was not canvassed except in case of some of the leaders; I claimed that in surrendering their armies and arms they had done what they could not all of them have been compelled to do, as a portion of them could have escaped, but they surrendered in consideration of the fact that they were to be exempt from trial so long as they conformed to the obligations they had taken; and they were entitled to that; that is my view still; that was my understanding of an arrangement which I made voluntarily. Gen. Lee's army was the first to surrender, and I believed that with such terms all the rebel armies would surrender, and we would thus avoid bushwacking and a continuation of the war in a way that we would make very little progress with, having no organized armies to meet. I considered that like terms were given to all the armies that surrendered after that. I will here state that I am not quite certain whether I am being tried or who is being tried by the questions asked. I have stated those views to the President frequently, and, as I have said, he disagreed with me in those views. He insisted on it that the leaders must be punished, and wanted to know when the time would come that those persons could be tried. I told him when they violated their parole. I do not consider that that applied to Jeff. Davis; he did not take any parole. It applied to no person who was captured, only to those who were paroled. The President contended that General Lee should be tried for treason. I insisted on it that General Lee would not have surrendered his army and given up all their arms if he supposed that after surrendering he was going to be tried for treason and hanged. I thought we got a very good equivalent for the lives of a few leaders in getting all their arms and getting themselves under control, bound by their oaths to obey the laws. That was the consideration which I insisted upon we had received. The President afterward agreed with me on that subject. I never claimed that the parole gave these prisoners any political right whatsoever. I thought that that was a matter entirely with Congress, over which I had no control; that simply as a General-in-chief, commanding the army, I had a right to stipulate for the surrender on terms which protected their lives. This is all I claimed. The parole gave them protection and exemption from punishment for all offenses not in violation of the rules of civilized warfare so long as their parole was kept. Mr. Johnson seemed to be anxious to get at the leaders to punish them. He would say that the leaders of the rebellion must be punished, and that treason must be made odious. He cared nothing for the men in the ranks—the common men. Speaking of the Amnesty Proclamation, I could not see any reason why the fact of a volunteer rising to the rank of a General should exclude him any more than any other grades. With reference to the $20,000 clause I thought that a man's success in the world was no reason for his being excluded from amnesty, but recollect I afterward said to the President that I thought he was right in that particular lar and I was wrong. I looked on the proclamation as one which he was determined to issue, and as a thing susceptible to amendment or improvement; I have given my opinion, perhaps, as to what has been done, but I do not think I advised any course myself, any more than that I was very anxious to see something done to restore evil governments in those States.

I have always been attentive to my own duties, and tried not to interfere with other people's; I was always ready to originate matters pertaining to the army, but I never was willing to originate matters pertaining to the civil government of the United States; when I was asked my opinion about what had been done I was willing to give it; I originated no plan, and suggested no plan for civil government; I only gave my views on measures after they had originated; I simply expressed an anxiety that something should be done to give some sort of control down there; there were no governments there when the war was over, and I wanted to see some government established, and wanted to see it done quickly; I did not pretend to say how it should be done, or in what form. I will state here that before Mr. Lincoln's assassination the question about issuing a proclamation of some sort and establishing some sort of civil government there, was up, and what was done then was continued after Mr. Johnson came into office.

I have recommended for pardon Gen Longstreet, Gen. J. G. French, George H. Stewart, P. D. Roddy, Gen. Lee and Gen. Johnston. I was in favor of the North Carolina proclamation giving that State a government. I was in favor of that or anything else which looked to civil government until Congress could meet and establish governments there; I did not want all chaos left there and no form of civil government whatever; I was not in favor of anything or opposed to anything particularly; I was simply in favor of having government there; I did not pretend to give my judgment as to what it should be; I was perfectly willing to leave it to the civil department; I asked no person what I should do in my duties; I was willing to take all the responsibility and did not want to give my views as to what the civil branch of the Government should do; I cannot say positively that I have ever heard the President make any remark in reference to the admission of members of Congress from the Rebel States; I have heard him say—and I think I have heard him say twice in his speeches—that if the North carried the elections by members enough to give them, with the Southern members, a majority, why would they not be the Congress of the United States. I have heard him say that several times. I mean if the North carried enough members in favor of the admission of the South. I did not hear him say that he would recognize them as a Congress. I merely heard him ask the question, "Why would they not be the Congress?" I heard him say that in one or two speeches; do not recollect where. The President alluded to the subject of the legality of Congress frequently on his tour to Chicago and back last summer. His speeches were generally reported with considerable accuracy; cannot recollect what he said except in general terms, but I read his speeches at the time, and they were reported with considerable accuracy.

I did not dissent from the North Carolina plan of reconstruction, at the meeting of the Cabinet in which it was discussed. I did not intend to dictate a plan. I did not think I expressed any opinion about it at the time; I looked upon it simply as a temporary measure until Congress should meet and settle the whole question, and that it did not make much difference how it was done so that there was a form of government there; I think I was present at the time by an invitation of either the President or the Secretary of War; I suppose I was free to express my views; I suppose the object was that I should express my views, if I could suggest any change; I did not think I was asked my views; I know that if I had been asked the question, I would have assented to that or almost anything else that would have given stable government there; in reference to the opinion, I know it never crossed my mind that what was being done was anything more than temporary. I understand this to be the view of the President and of everybody else. I did not know of any difference of opinion on the subject. He was very anxious to have Congress ratify his views. Mr. Lincoln prior to his assassination had inaugurated a policy intended to restore those governments. I was present once before his murder when a plan was read. The plan adopted by Mr. Johnson was substantially the plan which had been inaugurated by Mr. Lincoln, as the basis for his future action. I no not know that it was verbatim the same.

GREAT AMERICAN SHOW.

Bondholder to his wife.—Now, my dear, we will ride out and see our show. It is so nice to have a show of your own, and such a show as never was seen before.

Go slow, driver, so as not to jolt madam and I!

You wonder, my dear, where I get all my money. I will tell you now.—You know that tin box which I keep in the bank? That is full of United States Bonds. My fortune is in bonds. I draw $600,000 a year in gold as interest, and as I have no taxes to pay, of course we can enjoy all this style.

You see this first cage? That is a farmer—one of our slaves. He is a working tool of ours—a well meaning man carried away by the negro gag, crazy on that subject, but entirely willing to devote his days to labor to pay taxes to support me in idleness. I pay no taxes—he is willing to pay them all, and to pay interest in gold on my pile of bonds.

"What does his wife do?"

Ah, my dear, she works hard—washes milk-pans, churns, rubs, scrubs, patches and darns—sells eggs, butter, chickens and turkeys to us to get a little money to pay back to us as taxes.—Sometimes she weeps and mourns over her lot, but we must not hear her, my dear!

The next cage contains a returned soldier, a mechanic. He was a nice man, went to war, fought, lost a leg, came home and is now working to pay taxes to support the government and to pay us nabobs.

"Is that right?"

Pshaw! my dear! Don't ask such foolish questions! Might makes right, you know! He was a poor fool. He believed all us Radicals said, and was so engaged fighting for his country that he did not notice how nicely us good, loyal, stay-at-home Radicals, by the aid of our loyal, speculating Congress, wound the bands about him. He had a brother in the army—killed on a raid for the cotton our cousin made so much money from, you know. He is now working to redeem his home from the mortgage we put on while he was gone, and to raise his portion of the $300,000,000 a year in gold we bondholders demand as interest.

You know poor men always work the best when they are in debt! That is why a national debt is a national blessing! Drive on slowly!

"Who is that poor woman?"

Oh, she is another one of our victims. She had a husband, he went to war, took a cold while on a raid for cotton, mules and silver ware for the benefit of Curtis, Logan, Butler, Banks, and other thieving Generals, and at last died in a hospital. His wife, or his widow, is now working to support the children.—The government is real good to her—pays her a bounty—a few pence a day.

As us bondholders pay no taxes, and it does not cost us one cent to support the government, we are willing all the women of America should have bounties, so long as they pay them themselves from their own earnings and do not force us protected bondholders to pay them.—Let them have bounties—by all means—and our interest is payable in gold!

Drive on, slowly!

"Who is in that cage?"

That, my dear, is a poor miner—he is digging gold for us bondholders. Don't disturb him—don't say anything till we pass him, for the returns from California and Montana lead us to fear a little trouble from such fellows.

But here is a cage, my dear, which is nice. You see those orphans at work? They are our slaves—their fathers died in battle, and us bondholders support them. To be sure we don't pay for their support, but we levy taxes on the farmers, miners, mechanics, widows and children of the country to support these institutions. We mix up these things, taking care to draw our interest in gold and to sandwich our claims between bounties and orphans, and so the willing people of America toil on! Ain't it nice, my dear, to be smart, and run this show to suit a few of us bondholders?

Never mind that cage, my dear!—Driver, crack up the horses a little!—Touch that off one a little on the flanks with the whalebone!

That cage is full of fallen women, victims of political preachers, members of Congress, government officers, lecherous old deacons and others of the God and morality party. They were once good girls, good women, but they fell during the war. But they pay taxes to support us bondholders—they furnish amusements for our manly sons—they add to the revenue, and their cages are stills which gather gold from infamy, and that gold buys the laces you wear, my dear! Drive on, Jehu!

"What cage is that?"

A very pretty one, my dear. Hold on, driver. Don't you hear the music of machinery? The victims are the factory operatives of New England—slaves to wealth, toilers to support us. We work them early and late—pay them in greenbacks, while our interest is payable in gold. They work more hours each day than ever did the slaves of the South. They live poorer, and work harder. We raise their wages once and then lower them three times—they work at the sound of the whistle or tap of the bell—march to their boarding houses in long lines, like convicts, eat from boarding house tables and make excellent slaves. If they knew their strength they would upset their cage, but the sturdy negro there with his rod, keeps them in very nicely.

It is a very nice show, my dear! And now we will see the fun! The keeper will, with his great steal hook, go around and draw out the scrip they earned while we have been looking at them, and it will serve to buy wine and game for our dinners, pianos for our house, silks for you, and more Bonds for me!

Watch sharp, my dear! You see how the poor victims act as the hook draws out their earnings! Lean a little back, for some of them have seen us and talk of—Repudiation.

Great God! But that word makes me tremble!

Now we can watch them unobserved!

See the farmer hold his aching back as the hook draws out his earnings!

See the widow weep and look with tearful eye upon her dying child as the hook brings to us the little she has earned!

See the laborers rush to the drunkard's cup as their earnings are snatched away! They say they might as well spend their money for beer and whisky as to support us bondholders, so we will enact laws that they shall not spend their money, but give it all to us!

Hurry up, Mr. Keeper—rake out all you can—load my carriage and we'll be off to drink the wine and enjoy the luxuries us bondholders purchase with the money hooked from the victims that make up our show.

Kiss your fingers to the victims, my dear! They work better if we notice them a little. Wave your embroidered handkerchief to the cage we hastened by that the inmates may see our style and treat our sons with more attention. Rub a little of that imported cologne over my face—the sight of sweat on the faces of our victims makes mine a little sticky! Don't put your feet up so far for we are aristocratic, now—protected pets of Radicalism and must act discreetly!

A lad from the "Green Isle," whose occupation is that of blacking stoves, fire-places, and stove-pipes, bearing upon his arm a pot of blacking, with brushes and other implements of his trade, addressed a denizen of the city, who was standing at the door:—"Has your honor any stove to polish this morning? I'm the boy for that business." The person addressed not being of a courteous manner, gruffly answered: "Go about your business."—Pat moved a few steps off, to be out of the reach of a kick, and replied: "Your honor would not be worse for a little polishing yourself, I'm thinking."

THE finest idea of a thunderstorm extant is, when Wiggins came home tight. Now, Wiggins is a teacher, and had been to a temperance meeting, and drank too much lemonade, or something. He came into the room among his wife and daughters, and just then he tumbled over the cradle and fell whop on the floor. After a while he rose and said:

"Wife, are you hurt?"

"No."

"Girls, are you hurt?"

"No."

"Terrible clap, wasn't it?"

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, December 20, 1867.

THE editor of this paper has been called from home, by the sudden death of his beloved father, and our readers will, therefore, excuse the want of editorial in this issue.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT AND WHAT THEY DON'T WANT.

In a late speech by Judge Thurman, he has made a spirited summary of the popular desire as expressed by the elections of this year. He says: "the people were never more in earnest than they are now. Demagogues, abuse and empty declamation go for nothing. The people demand the truth, and they will have it; they demand relief from unnecessary taxation, and they will have it; they demand a fair apportionment of the public burdens, and they will have it; they demand just and intelligible revenue laws, and they will have them; they demand retrenchment and economy, and they will have them; and, to give effect to their will, they demand honest rulers, and they are determined to have them.

"On the other hand, there are some things that they are determined not to have. They won't have negroes put above white men; they won't have one-third the country given up to destruction; they won't have the prosperity of the whole country sacrificed for the sake of politicians; they won't support tens of thousands of officers in idleness who ought to be turned out to honest work; they won't be taxed to support negroes who are able to support themselves, while poor white men and women have to earn their daily bread by their daily toil, they won't have a gold currency for the bondholders and a paper currency for the people; and they won't have the social customs to which they have been habituated arbitrarily interfered with by vexatious and oppressive legislation. So I read the elections of this year."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON sent a message to the Senate last week, giving his reasons for suspending from office Secretary Stanton. These, so far as yet known, briefly stated, were: 1st. The open defiance of Mr. Stanton to the request of the President to send in his resignation, thus casting disrespect on the Presidential office. 2d. The failure of Secretary Stanton to send instructions to General Baird when telegraphed by the latter to do so previous to the assembling of the Convention at New Orleans, and his neglect to communicate to the President the despatch until ten days subsequently, and after the riot had occurred. The President also states that when he consulted the members of the Cabinet on the subject of the Tenure of Office bill, Secretary Stanton was the most emphatic of all in condemning it.

THE Pittsburgh Chronicle, professing to be an independent journal, but leaning always on the side of Republicanism, gives the following explanation of the recent defeat of the Radical candidate for Mayor in that city:

Another word on this subject. It is now pretty generally accepted as a fact, that the private bargaining in the Republican Convention caused the defeat of the candidates for the Mayoralty and Treasuryship. We shall hear, therefore much pleasant talk about the virtue of the people, the indignation of the virtuous people about political chicanery, and all that. But it is proper to remember by what small majorities the candidates for Controller and City Attorney were elected, who were not parties to the bargaining. It shows that there is a greater loosening of party ties than is now admitted, and that the great political change which was developed by recent State elections, has gone into every large city of the land. New combinations are formed which influence the result of elections. In nearly every city of the country the Republicans have lost ground during the last twelve months. It is not necessary now to inquire the reasons. We call attention to the fact, to show that the election held here yesterday is not to be measured solely as a rebuke to parties who were supposed to have done a little too offensive political dickering, but is to be judged also in the light of political changes all over the country.

THE following is the 4th section of Educational Ordinances, as introduced in the negro Constitutional Convention of Louisiana, viz:

No person shall establish a private school unless licensed by the State, and all such schools shall be taxed as other professions, and the Legislature shall make laws governing this entire subject.

This is to prevent the establishment of private schools for white children, as it is the object of the convention to compel the two races to attend the same school and be educated together as social equals.

THE Virginia State Conservative Convention has adjourned after providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare an address to the people of Virginia and of the United States. Resolutions were also adopted authorizing the State Central Committee to take steps for testing the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts in the Supreme Court of the United States. After the Convention had closed its session the Hon. R. T. Hunter made a brief speech, in which he stated that to give the blacks the powers of Government was the highest crime in nature and that between negro and military rule he preferred the latter, for the men who wielded the sword were of his own race.

—The Rump Senate got an inkling of its unworthyness, the other day, and voted to strike out the word "honorable" which occurs before the names of its members on the journal.—Patriot and Union.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

The Senate Committee on Military Affairs will commence an investigation into the case of Secretary Stanton to-morrow. Howard, of Michigan, a leading Radical, has been assigned to the work, and there is no doubt that he will labor assiduously to vindicate the imperious Secretary and restore him to power. He (Stanton) will be permitted to appear in his own defense, and the indications are that the committee will dispose of the case at an early day.

The Democratic caucus which was to have been held on Thursday evening last, has been postponed to some evening this week, and probably may not be held until after the holiday recess. It is understood that the principal subject for consideration will be the nominating convention—when and where it shall be held. The general impression is that it will finally be decided to hold it at Baltimore, in the Maryland Institute Hall.

Some of the friends of the administration urge the President to relieve General Pope, and appoint General Meade to the command of his military district.

The grounds upon which the removal is asked are that Gen. Pope has recklessly removed judicial and other civil officers elected by the people, that no acts are proved or attempted to be shown against the deposed officers which can be construed as obstructions to the execution of the reconstruction acts, and that the officers were removed merely to subserve political party ends.

The Negroes in Louisiana.

A number of influential persons in Louisiana recently assembled in New Orleans and addressed the following memorial to President Johnson:

The reconstruction ideas of Congress will, if persisted in, produce a conflict of races, which will result in the desolation of the country and the serious if not irreparable injury to both races in the Southern States:

That the negroes of this State are organized into secret bands called loyal leagues, sworn and combined against the white race, in order to obtain control of the government.

That this credulous race has been deluded by designing white men into the belief that the property of the white citizens of the State will be divided among them.

That under these demoralizing influences they are contracting habits of idleness and vice, and decline to labor for the support of themselves and their families.

That in consequence of this demoralization planting in this State has resulted in the ruinous failure of a large majority of our planters, and of course in the necessity of abandonment.

That before the close of the present year the negroes, with but few exceptions, will have consumed or wasted all their wages or share of the crops, and be destitute of the means of subsistence.

That the white race will be compelled to limit their planting to the labor of their own families, while the negroes will not have the means, if they have the capacity to plant on their own account.

Under these circumstances famine, with all its attendant horrors, must come upon this improvident race.

The condition of the things above stated exists in all the unreconstructed States, created by the Radical policy toward the South. They are growing worse every day; aggravated from time to time by the erroneous notions put into the heads of the negroes.—Now the question which these facts present must be met and settled by the people of the North, and that before a great while. Our people will never consent that the South shall lapse into barbarism and ruin, nor will they be willing to be taxed to support the idle, worthless negroes who are too lazy to work. The adjustment of the matter of race has been tried through the agency of the ballot, and utterly failed. Now let us try something else. Let the people dismiss the quacks who are attending on the sick man, and call in a regular practitioner to prescribe for him.

STICK TO SAMBO.—The Morning Post, the New Radical CHASE organ established in Philadelphia, in a late article prints the following significant paragraph:

The gentlemen who propose to take negro suffrage out of our platform, would leave the party without a mission. They would vainly seek to rally the people by loud denunciations of treason, and boasts of Republican services to the Union. No thinking man now troubles himself about the crimes of Jeff. Davis, and the victories of the war, except so far as they are matters of history. We cannot carry them into a political campaign. The issue before the country is negro suffrage, and the party cannot evade it, without ceasing to be a party.

A CANADIAN TREATY.—In March, 1866, Congress suspended the reciprocity treaty with Canada, which it was thought would be an admirable means of venting its wrath against Great Britain. Previously to that time large supplies of wheat, oats, potatoes, lumber, and other articles of Canadian production, had been obtained from Canada, increasing our commerce with the provinces at the rate of from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. annually, but, since there has been a reduction of fifty-two per cent. in our imports from that quarter, the consequence of which is felt in higher prices. There is now a prospect of the re-enactment of the treaty, it having been discovered that we have been punishing ourselves in in this brilliant experiment to afflict "perfidious Albion."

—The Radical white and black State Convention at Richmond is begining bravely. Yesterday a petition was received and read praying the passage of a homestead law. A negro delegate offered a resolution calling for the appointment of a committee to wait on General Schofield, and ask him to remove the present State officers, and failing in that to go to Washington and obtain authority to give the convention the right to remove them.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.—A number of resolutions of no general interest were taken up and disposed of. Mr. Chandler called up his resolution declaring neutrality on the part of the United States in the pending contest between Great Britain and Abyssinia, and proceeded to deliver a speech denouncing the course of the British Government in the late war, which, he said, had cost the United States two hundred thousand lives and two billions of dollars; the lives, he said, could never be repaid, but every foot of land owned by that Power on this continent was responsible for the debt, and the day would come when it would be taken to pay that obligation. He concluded with a demand for the recognition of the Abyssinian flag both on land and sea. Mr. Johnson spoke in reply to Mr. Chandler and against the resolution. After some additional speech-making on the subject, the Senate went into executive session without taking any action on the resolution, and as its conclusion adjourned.

HOUSE.—A great number of bills and resolutions were reported and referred to the different committees. A special committee of five was ordered to consider the report of the Commissioners appointed to revise the statutes of the United States army. The House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution adopted in a Committee of the Whole on Saturday, referring portions of the President's message to designated committees, and a portion of it was referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. This action virtually revives that committee. The Senate bill for the better protection of civil rights in the District of Columbia was taken up and passed, yeas 106, nays 38. Mr. Hooper introduced a bill to reduce the internal revenue taxes, and addressed the House in favor of it. Several other members made speeches on the same subject, but no action was taken by the House Without transacting any other business of general importance the House, at 3 40 P. M., adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Cole introduced a bill amending the legal tender act so that contracts made after July 4, 1868, payable in coin, may be enforced according to agreement, legal tender notes remaining a legal tender in all cases (as at present) except as above, and for payment of important duties, interest on the public debt, &c. Mr. Wilson introduced his bill to remove the political disabilities of certain citizens of Alabama. The resolution of Mr. Drake, to censure the President for the sentiments expressed in his annual message, coming up, Mr. D. proceeded to speak at length in support of his proposition.

HOUSE.—The speaker of the House announced the committee on reconstruction. A concurrent resolution was adopted by the House to adjourn over from the 20th of Dcember until the 6th of January. The confiscation bill of Mr. Stevens coming up, it was opposed in speeches of considerable length by Mr. Chandler, of New York, and Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, after which its further consideration was postponed until the 21st of January. The resolution of Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, proposing to amend the constitution so as to give universal suffrage in all the States, was taken up and discussed by the author until the hour of adjournment.

SENATE.—The committee on Finance reported favorably the House bill exempting all cotton grown after the year 1867 from the internal revenue tax. Mr. Drake's resolution censuring the President was then taken up, and after a personal explanation from Mr. Drake denying the report that he had, when in the Legislature of Missouri, advocated the enslavement of all free negroes in that State, Mr. Johnson took the floor and delivered an address in reply to Mr. Drake's speech of Tuesday last and in defence of the course of the President. At its conclusion the further consideration of the resolution was postponed. The House resolution providing for an adjournment of Congress from December 20th to January 6th was rejected—yeas 18, nays 20. The Senate then went into executive session and at its close adjourned.

HOUSE.—A great number of bills and resolutions were introduced and disposed of. Among them were the following: By Mr. Maynard, a resolution directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire into the expediency of providing that our diplomatic and consular representatives to Hayti, Liberia, and other African ports, should be selected from among American citizens of African descent. It was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. By Mr. Spalding, a resolution declaring that while the House does not claim any right to participate in the treaty-making power, yet that its voice should be heard in perfecting treaties, &c. It was referred to the Committee of the Whole. By Mr. Baker, a resolution declaring that it was, on all accounts, expedient that the military establishment should be as small as is compatible with the needs of the country, and directing the Military Committee to inquire into the expediency of reducing the army. This was agreed to, as was also a resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the propriety of directing the Secretary of War to consolidate the military department of New York State. The Committee of Ways and Means was directed to inquire into the propriety of exempting from taxation all incomes not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars per annum. A number of communications from the different departments were laid before the House and referred to various committees. No other business of general importance was taken up, and at 4 P. M. the House adjourned.

SENATE.—The Committee on Territories reported a bill to regulate the selection of grand and petit jurors in the Territory of Utah. This bill, which will be called up at an early day, is intended to prevent polygamy and other abuses now prevailing in that Territory. A short discussion took place on the bill exempting all cotton grown after this year from the internal revenue tax, but no action was taken. The House bill securing to the families of soldiers the bounties to which they are entitled was passed, with amendments. The vote by which the House joint resolution providing for an adjournment from December 20th to January 6th was rejected, was reconsidered, and after a short debate the resolution was agreed to. The bill to raise the value of legal tender notes to par was then taken up, and Mr. Corbett made a speech against any additional inflation of the currency. The Senate then went into executive session, and at its conclusion adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—The day in the House was entirely devoted to speech making in Committee of the Whole. Mr. Van Trump, of Ohio, delivered an address upon the general condition of the country, and in support of the President's course. Several members then made speeches on the subject of impeachment, after which Mr. Kerr, of Indiana, spoke on the distribution of the judicial power of the country. The committee then rose and the House adjourned until Monday.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

—A Conservative negro club was organized at Montgomery, Alabama, on Thursday night last, the meeting for this purpose originating with the blacks. The speakers denounced the members of the State Convention, and urged their people to stand by the old inhabitants of the Sonth as the true friends of the South. Resolutions also were adopted declaring in strong language against the ratification of the new Constitution.

—A large number of officers of United States colored troops have been mustered out, among them Brigadier General O. H. Howard, who will doubtless be retained as a civilian Assistant Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau in the Washington District. A number of officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps have also been mustered out.

—A mob of some fifty armed negroes at Athens, Georgia, having threatened to attack the students of the University at that place, the latter, armed in turn, and a difficulty was imminent, but troops were ordered out and the negroes were dispersed.

—General Pope, who appears to be emulous of the fame of General Mower, has recently removed nine judicial and ministerial officers in Alabama, and has appointed "loyal" Republicans in their places. Five of those appointed were Radical members of the recent State Convention.

—The widow of a former member of Congress, residing in Hallowell, Me., lately married her hostler. He treated her cruelly, and she applied for a divorce, whereupon he decamped with $20,000 in bonds, leaving her in destitute circumstances.

—Mr. James M. Mason, of Virginia, now in Canada, writes a letter to R. W. Graham, of Texas, advising against any emigration of the Southern people to Jamaica or anywhere else.

—The Gadsden (Ala.) Times says that for the past two months an average of fifty wagons per week have passed through that town, filled with dissatisfied Georgeans and Alabamians seeking homes in the Western States.

—On the tenure of office law the President has "the Congress." Even the Pittsburgh Gazette gives this much up. Read what it says: "In his argument against the office tenure bill, so far as it relates to such cases as that of Mr. Stanton, the President has the best of it."

—The eastern and western Rads of the Rump are getting into a "snarl" about the taxation, import duty, and bond and currency questions. Just now "Republican principles" are so mixed or so "warious" that no one seems acute or capacious enough to explain or to hold them.

—Dr. N. B. Shurtleff, Democrat, was elected mayor of Boston, on Monday, by 458 majority. In Newburyport Nathaniel Pierce, Democrat, was elected mayor, on the same day.

DULL TIMES IN MAINE.—The correspondent of the Boston Journal writes gloomily of the business of that State. He says:

"The fact cannot be gainsayed that, go where you may in Maine, business will be found crippled and the cry of dull times goes up on every hand. In a recent communication I have already stated that there will be less lumbering by one-half this winter than usual. Mention has also been made of such a prostration in shipbuilding interests that hardly a vessel can be found upon the stocks. Hundreds of workmen are out of employment. Never before were our manufacturing interests in such a state of languish. At our manufacturing centres either the pay of employees has been materially reduced or a reduction in the hours of labor been made. Several of the leading manufacturers have joined in the Cleveland movement for the discontinuance of the enormous and unequal revenue tax that now oppresses many of our domestic articles, as a means of relief."

CHICAGO PORK TRADE.—The newspapers of Chicago report that the pork-packing business of that city is making giant strides this season, but the operators are of opinion that the season will practically terminate about New Year's day. The receipts of hogs for the week just closed were 133,981 live and 7,168 dressed—total, 141,049 head. This is the largest number ever received in any one week in that or any other city. The receipts two weeks ago were 111,240, an increase of 29,809 in favor of the week just closed.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN PITTSBURG.

The Ball Still Rolling.

The Democrats and working men of Pittsburg achieved a glorious and unprecedented triumph at the municipal election. The following despatches tell the story:

PITTSBURG, Dec. 10.—The Democratic ball continues to roll. Mr. Blackmore, the Democratic candidate is elected Mayor by twenty-five hundred majority. At the last election Williams received a majority of 1,259—a Democratic gain of 3,759.

PITTSBURG, December 10.—In the municipal election here to-day unusual interest was manifested. The Democratic candidates for Mayor, Treasurer, Controller, and City Attorney, were elected by large majorities, approximating to 3,000, over the Radical nominees. The result is unprecedented and caused great excitement. An immense crowd gathered in front of the office of the Evening Advocate, the organ of the labor reform, and with enthusiastic shouts greeted the election news as read to them. A band is now serenading the successful candidate for Mayor, Mr. Blackmore.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 11.—James A. Weston, Democrat, was to-day elected mayor of Manchester, by a majority of 392 over Cloud, the present incumbent. The Radical majority last year was 540.

ASSAULT UPON A WHITE GIRL BY NEGROES—Arrest of the Ruffians.—An infamous assault was made upon Miss Harriet Thomas, a respectable young female residing in the Sixth ward, while passing along Colder street on Monday evening. When near the colored school house she was approached by three or four negro ruffians who violently seized her person, evidently with the design of perpetrating a most diabolical outrage. The girl's screams alarmed the neighbors, and caused the ruffians to seek safety in flight. Subsequently constable Radabaugh captured four negroes named Thomas H. Smith, Richard Anderson, John W. Smith and George Albert Washington, on suspicion of having been concerned in this affair. After a hearing before Alderman Cole, of the Sixth ward, the two last named "manhoods" were discharged, and Thomas H. Smith and Richard Anderson committed to prison for trial on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit rape. That this was the design of the negro scoundrels, there can be no doubt from the nature of the testimony presented. It is the general impression, and no doubt a correct one, that nearly all the former outrages of this kind in our city were committed by ruffians of the same race and color. Should Smith and Anderson be convicted, they ought to be punished with such severity as will restrain others from the commission of similar deeds.—Patriot & Union

THE TRIAL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.—After a great flourish of Radical trumpets in regard to the trial of Jefferson Davis, at which Judge Chase was to preside, it appears that the affair will not come off until May next. Now, this is simply a pitiful evasion of a solemn duty on the part of Judge Chase. Ever since a trial of Davis has been spoken of, the Chief Justice has, by one dodge and another, made it convenient to so arrange his affairs as to render his attendance apparently impossible. The reasons are obvious; Judge Chase is a Radical candidate for the Presidency, and it is scarcely to be expected that he will place himself in a position where he will be compelled to give an opinion that will have a bearing upon the political prospects. It may, therefore, be confidently asserted that Jefferson Davis will never be tried—at least not until Judge Chase's chances for the Presidency are fully determined.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR JANUARY.—Two finely executed Steel Engravings lead off the January number of this "Queen of the Monthlies." One is called "My Household," and the young husband certainly seems to be very well satisfied with his treasures. The other engraving is a Dutch Skating Scene, and is very seasonable and appropriate. The colored Double-Page Steel Fashion Plate, is, as usual, unrivalled in elegance, and fidelity to the mode. The engraving, "Dogs will be Dogs," is first-rate; and the many illustrations of the Fashions, etc., all the ladies will know how to appreciate. The music for this number is "The Moonlight Waltz." The Literary matter is by Virginia Townsend, Elizabeth Prescott—who begins a facinating story called "A Dead Man's Rule"—Flowrence Percy, the distinshed Poetess, Louise Chandler Moulton, Margaret Hosmer, Aunt Alice, Una Locke, etc., etc.

The publishers are sending the December number, which is a very beautiful one, free to all New Subscribers for 1868. Other great inducements in the way of Premiums, &c., are promised to subscribers, and our readers should send for a sample copy, containing all these liberal offers. Sample copies will be sent for fifteen cents. Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), 4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE GEM OF THE MONTHLIES.—The January number of DEMOREST, now entering its sixth year, redeems the promises of the publisher for 1868. It is the most attractive of the fashion periodicals and deserves the success which it has achieved. Its aim is to combine the useful with the beautiful, and it does it in the best manner. It supplies to ladies a fount of inspiration, which none who have once tasted should live, keep house, and dress nicely without; and save more dollars in a year than its cost. It is a marvel how valuable premiums can be afforded with a magazine so costly in its getting-up. $3 per year. W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York. Send 15 cents for a specimen, with drections for getting up clubs and making money.

—Judge Williams' majority in Pittsburg last fall was 1,258. The Democracy have therefore gained 4,146 by the election of Blackmore.

—The "loyal" league of Philadelphia has split on the Grant question and a large number of the membership have departed.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED whose sufferings have been protracted from hideous causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits or melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

AMERICAN

WATCHES.

The true value of Machinery applied to Watchmaking is not that by its use Watches are made rapidly, but that they are made correctly. Very few people know why a Waltham Watch should be superior to any other. In the first place, at Waltham the Watch is regarded as only a machine, to be constructed like any other machine, on mechanical principles. If the watches are good, it is because the machinery is good. Of course there must be no defect in the principle or plan of the movement—no mistake in the sizes or shapes of the pieces of which it is composed—nothing wanting in their properties, and no error in their positions. These points once thoroughly settled, it rests wholly with the machinery, constructed with infinite diversity of form and function expressly for the purpose, to produce the finished pieces. By means of multyplying guages and microscopes, tests and inspection for the detection of wear in the cutting tools, and for faults and flaws in steel or stone are made to accompany the work in every stage from beginning to end. As a necessary result, the watch goes together a perfect machine. Every part is found to fit properly in its place. Every pin may be pushed till it pinches, and every screw turned home. Instead of a sluggish and feeble action, the balance, even under the pressure of the lightest mainspring, vibrates with a wide and free motion, and the beat has the clear ringing sound always characteristic of the Waltham Watch. The machine is a time-keeper from the start

This system of watchmaking is unknown in foreign countries, and is entirely original with the Waltham Company. The Company claim that by it they produce watches that cannot be equalled for every quality which makes a watch valuable. Simple in plan and correct in principle, the movement is not only beautifully finished, substantial, accurate and cheap, but is uniform in the minutest details, not easily damaged, and when repaired always as good as new. There are different grades of finish in the different varieties of watches made by the Waltham Company, as there are different sizes and shapes to suit all tastes and means; but every Watch that bears the genuine trade-mark of "WALTHAM" is guarantied to be a good one, and nobody need be afraid to buy it.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—In accordance with our time-honored custom, and the custom of most all weekly papers, we will not issue a paper next week.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—Now is the time to buy Christmas presents. Don't put off your purchases until next week. Almost every one who makes the holidays a time of real solid happiness, by dispensing liberally, can remember many instances where they have seen some particularly appropriate gifts which they had intended to purchase for some loved member of their household or friend, but when the season week of Christmas came, somebody else had secured the prize, and that most appropriate token was lost, simply by postponement or procrastination. During the holiday week almost all kinds of desirable goods, suitable for these occasions are a little higher than in ordinary times, and the same money expended now will purchase a greater number of gifts, and hence more hearts will be made happy.—Therefore we say to all, begin to buy your Christmas and New Year's gifts now.

THE CASH SYSTEM.—It is now universally conceded that the credit system is a curse, alike to seller and buyer. It tempts men to wrong. It is the key to extravagance. Indifferent and irresponsible business men are created thereby; and in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, bankruptcy is entailed on those who do a credit business. Every man in the community would be benefitted by the establishment of a stringent cash system, and there is no business now conducted but what could be more prosperously carried on if controlled by the same principle.

GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—At the regular quarterly session of the Grand Lodge of A. Y. M., held at the Masonic Hall, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, December 4th, the following were elected officers of that body: Richard Vaux, R. W. Grand Master; R. A. Lamberton, R. W. Deputy Grand Master; Samuel C. Perkins, R. W. S. G. Warden; Alfred R. Porter, R. W. J. G. Warden. These officers will be installed on St. John's Day, December 27th, at the Annual Communication, to be held on that day.

SLEIGHING.—The sleighing has been excellent during the last week, and the musical tintinnabulation of bells could be heard in all directions, as swiftly gliding "turn outs" passed in constant succession along our streets. If a sudden thaw does not occur we may anticipate a regular sleighing carnival, in which all who have the "means and appliances" will participate, to their own enjoyment and the pecuniary profit of livery stable proprietors.

A LOCAL cotemporary very timely and pertinently cautions its readers to watch the strolling beggars who are perambulating the country in unusual numbers. They are mostly thieves in disguise, and take the garb of poverty the better to afford them opportunities of pilfering. With the ample provision made for the poor by the county, there is no excuse for any person to beg from door to door, and none particularly for the class who give so much annoyance to our country residents.

A TRIBUTE OF PRAISE.—The German Reformed Sunday School will offer a Tribute of Praise to Jesus, on Christmas morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Ger. Ref. Church, in this place, where a couple of addresses will be delivered, and several carols, &c., will be sung by the School. A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the Orphans' Home. The friends of Sunday Schools, and orphan children, are cordially invited to attend. The Church will be handsomely decorated in honor of the occasion.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH—CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION.—There will be a Sunday School celebration at the Court House, on Tuesday evening next (Christmas eve,) at which a handsome Christmas tree will be displayed. The exercises will consist of the singing of carols, Scripture recitations, catechising and an address by the Rector. Service to commence at seven o'clock. Also on Christmas morning there will be Divine service at ten o'clock and a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Barrow appropriate to the occasion.

LUTH. SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—On Sunday evening next, there will be an interesting meeting of the Luth. Sunday School in the Church. Addresses will be delivered by J. M. Reynolds, H. J. Fisher and C. W. Schaeffer. Report of Sunday School operations, distributions of premiums, &c., will take place. The number of verses committed by the scholars, we understand, is rather extraordinary.

CHRISTMAS ANNIVERSARY IN SCHELLSBURG.—On Christmas night, in Lutheran Church: Speeches, Dialogues, Hymns, Chants Anthems Designs or Emblems, and instrumental Music. Church to be elegantly decorated in honor of Reformation Jubilee.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS.—Our Carrier will be around, on New Year's day, with his annual address. He has done his work well, and deserves to be liberally rewarded.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT.—Four Certificates of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, in aid of the Riverside Institute for educating orphans, costing four dollars, with the fine engraving "The Perils of our Forefathers," each certificate secures also one present at the Great Distribution by the Company, making four presents, one or more of which may be worth thousands of dollars. Such a gift will make a friend gay and merry perhaps wealthy too. Read Advertisement.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, intending to go West for the purpose of going into buisness, requests all persons indebted to the late firm of Geo. Blymyer & Son and B. M. Blymyer & Co., by Book account, to call and settle the same on or before the 10th day of January, 1868, as all open accounts will be left in the hands of a collector for settlement after that date.

DEAD LETTERS.—We see it stated in an exchange that the P. M. General has instructed Postmasters to treat all letters dropped into the office, directed with a lead pencil, the same as dead letters. The public will do well to make a note of this.

CHRISTMAS.—Reader, if you would make yourself or friends happy, on Christmas, call at Berkstressers' and purchase yourself or friend a new suit of good serviceable clothing. Their prices are reasonable and they guarantee satisfaction to all who may give them a call.

SOME of the Radical members of Gov. Swann's "Maryland Guard" (which Forney and other Radicals swore were organized to assist President Johnson in putting down Congress) have come to grief. At the grand review in October last a few of them undertook to insult Gov. Swann, the commander-in-chief. They have recently been tried by a court-martial and the findings have been made public, as follows:—For gross violation of military discipline and unsoldierlike conduct, the 6th and 8th regiments, second brigade, first division Maryland National Guard, are hereby publicly reprimanded.—The officers of companies D, E and G, 8th regiment Maryland National Guard, are hereby dishonorably dismissed the service. The enlisted men of said companies are hereby dishonorably discharged the service.—Cumberland Alleganian.

PARIS, 8th April, 1864, 25 Rue Fauby, St. Honore.

Will you be kind enough to have forwarded to me here 200 bottles of your Indian Liniment if you will send at the same time the account, I will forward you the amount through Messrs. BELMONT & Co., New York.

BARON SOLOMON ROTHSCHILD having recommended to many of his friends Major LANE'S LINIMENT, and they being desirous to procure it, he should advise him to establish a depot in Paris.

THE INDIAN LINIMENT.

As a relief, ever ready; as a killer of pain, taken inwardly, or outwardly applied, has no equal. For the relief and cure of Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, Sprains, Bruises, &c., it is unequalled. It is also most efficacious, taken inwardly, in the cure of Cholera, Cramps and Pains in the Stomach, Dirrhoea Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, &c., and is without exception the most wonderful Panacea the world affords. No FAMILY should be without it. Every TRAVELER by land or sea should have a bottle. MINERS and FARMERS residing at a distance from Physicians should keep it constantly on hand. In case of Accidents, and sudden attacks of Stomach Complaints, its value cannot be estimated. Inquire for Major LANE'S INDIAN LINIMENT, and take no other. PRICE 50 Cts. per bottle. For sale at wholesale and retail by Demas Barnes & Co., 21 Park Row, N. Y.; Gale & Robinson, 186 Greenwich-st., N. Y., F. C. Wells & Co., 192 Fulton-st., N. Y.; Chas. N. Crittenden, 38 6th Ave, N. Y.; and by respectable Druggists throughout the world. None genuine unless signed by JOHN THOS LANE, and countersigned by J. T. LANE & CO., Proprietors, 163 Broadway, N. Y. Send for circular.

WE STILL LIVE! Don't be humbugged by Impostors or "patent" cast iron or machine "Stencil tools." Send for our New Catalogue of IMPROVED STENCIL DIES, 20 varieties all of Steel, carefully finished and tempered. S. M. SPENCER & CO., Brattleboro, Vt.

$10 A DAY MADE BY ANY ONE, with my Patent Stencil Tools. I prepay samples free. Beware of infringers. My circulars will explain. Address A. J. FULLAM, Springfield, Vermont.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, ST. LOUIS & IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD CO.—Seven per cent. interest, February and August. These Bonds cover a road of 91 miles, finished from St. Louis to Pilot Knob, and in first-class order, and an extension of about the same length from Pilot Knob to Belmont, now rapidly constructing, for which the proceeds of these bonds are to be used, making a through route from St. Louis to New Orleans by rail. The earnings of the 91 miles are $600,000 a year; the net profits now are sufficient to pay the interest on the entire amount of bonds, were they all issued. The basis of security is believed to be beyond that of any other bonds now offered. Apply at the Office of the Company, No. 43 Wall-st., to H. G. MARQUAND, Vice President, or to CLARK, DODGE & CO., corner of Wall and William-sts., New York City.

WANTED—AN AGENT—One chance in each town, worthy the attention of an active business man, to take the agency for the sale of BRADSTREET'S RUBBER MOULDING AND WEATHER STRIPS, applied to the sides, bottom, top and centre of doors and windows. The sale is beyond anything ever offered before to an agent, and from $10 to $25 per day can be made. Send for agent's circular. The first who apply secure a bargain. Terms for moulding, cash. J. R. BRADSTREET & CO., Boston, Mass

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. THE TRUE REMEDY AT LAST DISCOVERED.—Upham's Fresh Meat Cure, prepared from the formula of Prof. Trousseau of Paris, cures Consumption, Lung Diseases, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Marasmus, General Debility and all morbid conditions of the system dependent on deficiency of vital force. It is pleasant to taste, and a single bottle will convince the most skeptical of its virtue as the great healing remedy of the age. $1 a bottle, or six bottles for $5. Sent by Express. Sold by S. C. UPHAM, No. 25 South Eighth-st., Philadelphia, and principal Druggists. Circulars sent free.

THIS IS NO HUMBUG!—By sending 30 cents, and stamp, with age, height, color of eyes and hair, you will receive, by return mail, a correct picture of your future husband or wife, with name and date of marriage. Address MINNIE CLIFTON, P. O. Drawer No. 8, Fultonville, N. Y.

I certify that the above is a correct statement of the aggregate amount of the assessment and valuation of the several objects and things made taxable by the laws of the Commonwealth, for county purposes, according to the returns of the several borough and township assessments, and published by authority of an Act of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Government," &c, passed the 27th day of July, A. D. 1842.

And, further, that the Commissioners did, on Monday, the 21 day of December, inst., determine whether any of the valuations of the assessors have been made below a just rate, according to the meaning and intention of said Act.

By order of the Commissioners:

JOHN G. FISHER, Clerk.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by
E. M. BRUCE.
18 N. Seventh Street, Philadelphia.
☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cottage Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

FOR THE BASIS OF ARTIFICIAL TEETH.
This discovery which has met with such universal approval throughout this and other countries, has seemingly placed Artificial Teeth at the disposal of all who require them. Dr. PORTER is now inserting most beautiful and durable, at prices ranging from ten to eighteen dollars per set.
☞ Temporary sets inserted if desired.
☞ All operations warranted.
TEETH EXTRACTED, without pain, by the use of NITROUS OXIDE or LAUGHING GAS.
This is NO HUMBUG, but a positive fact.
Gas administered fresh every day.
As the Gas administered by Dr. Porter is prepared in accordance with the purifying method of Dr. Strong, of New Haven, Ct., and Prof. Siliman (late Professor of Chemistry in Yale College), he has no hesitation in asserting that it is attended with no danger whatever.
Persons desiring the services of a Dentist, would promote their own interest by calling upon Dr. Porter, as he is determined to spare no effort to please the most fastidious. Dr. Porter's mode of operating will at all times be of the mildest character, avoiding the infliction of the slightest unnecessary pain, and carefully adapted to the age, constitution, health and nervous condition of the patient.
☞ Special attention is invited to Dr. Porter's scientific method of preserving decayed and aching teeth.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.
Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope.—Price six cents.
A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, resulting from self-Indulgence or Sexual extravagance, &c.—By DR. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
THE WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quar
